Open the door to home ownership with FHA financing

Home loans insured by the FHA (Federal Housing Administration) can make it easier for you to buy or refinance a home. In addition to flexible approval guidelines, these loans also include several great features such as:

- Low down payment options
- Both fixed- and adjustable-rate loans are available
- Lower credit scores may be approved if there are compensating factors
- Loans for 1-4 unit properties and condos may be available
- Your down payment funds can be a gift from a relative or employer
- Your home's seller may contribute up to 6% of your loan's costs

You can trust Fairway Independent Mortgage Corporation to provide you with everything you need for a simple, rewarding home loan experience while you build a secure financial future.
